OLUKOREDE YISHAU

Journalist | Author | Storyteller | Associate Editor
Email: yishau.editorial@gmail.com | Lagos & Abuja, Nigeria | Portfolio: olukoredeyishau.com

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Distinguished investigative journalist, award-winning novelist, and seasoned editor with over 18 years of groundbreaking coverage spanning Nigerian governance, public finance, human rights, cultural history, and investigative reporting across West Africa.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Investigative & Depth Reporting - Editorial Board Leadership - Literary Fiction & Creative Non-Fiction
- Media Ethics & Fact-Checking - Field Documentaries & Interviews - Crisis & Policy Analysis

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Associate Editor | The Nation Newspaper (2014 - Present)

- Direct major investigative desks and oversee political, economy, and feature reporting.
- Author high-impact weekly columns analyzing public policy and democratic institutions.

Senior Investigative Reporter & Feature Writer | National Dailies (2007 - 2014)

- Uncovered deep-seated systemic issues in governance, regional security, and extractive industries.
- Produced longform storytelling that influenced parliamentary inquiries and civil advocacy.

LITERARY PUBLICATIONS

- Author: In The Name of Our Father (Acclaimed political thriller / novel)
- Author: Vaults of Secrets (Anthology of award-winning short stories)

EDUCATION & FELLOWSHIPS

- B.Sc. Mass Communication / Journalism
- Fellow, Bloomberg Media Initiative Africa (BMIA)
- Wole Soyinka Centre for Investigative Journalism (WSCIJ) Finalist & Honoree